

I Will Stand (Acoustic Guitar, Capo 1)

Intro: C Am7 Bb Dm7 (x2)

Verse:

C2

Stumbling through the minefield

Am7 Bb Dm7

temptations for the weak and the naive

C2 Am7

Groping through the ranks of willful ignorance

Bb Dm7 E/G# - E

and those who are deceived

Am Am#5 Am6

Time, and time after time, I've lived a lie

G E/G#

And bought the world's own agenda

Am F/A

But You, You bled and died

D2 G G7sus4

And gave the life that holds me forever . . .

Chorus:

C2 G

So here I am, against the wind

Dm7 G

The storms may blow, the lights grow dim,

C2 G

Though all seems lost, and men may fall,

Dm7 G Am G/B Am G/B

The truth remains; And by Your grace, I will stand

Struggling through the wasteland, the morass of values void of absolutes

Desperate for discernment through a lie that's masquerading as the truth

Me, myself and I, Decide what's "right",

Truth is on trial, and license is rife

But You are The Christ

Raining down grace from heaven to save us . . .

Chorus 3:

So here I am, against the wind
The storms may blow, the lights grow dim,
Though all seems lost, and men may fall,
The truth remains; And by your grace, I will stand
(Repeat chorus)
